

Dear God,

Thank you for creating us the way we are.

Thank you for making us all different and unique.

If we were all the same, the world would be boring.

Thank you for making us a world where we can celebrate our differences and uniqueness.

Please make sure that this world continues the way it is, happily and peacefully.

Amen.

