Admissions Arrangements – School Year 2021/22

The St Joseph's George Row Catholic Primary School is consulting all interested parties including parents, schools and community groups on its school admissions arrangements for the 2021-22 school year.

There are no substantive changes to the oversubscription criteria only additional information and clarification on the application process, waiting list and appeals procedure. The school's Published Admissions Number remains as 45. Parents who wish to apply for places for their children will not be disadvantaged.

Details of the Admission Arrangements are also published on the school's website at:
