"When I was hungry, you fed me"

"When I was naked, you dressed me"

Listen to Him

After listening to the Gospel, I decided to give the homeless food, clothes and the word of God.

Third Sunday of Lent – 7th March 2021

John 2:13-22 - Jesus Clears the Temple Courts

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!"

His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?"

But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Renew & Rebuild

After listening to the gospel I thought about how I could renew and rebuild myself for the better just like Jesus did.

On returning to school next week I look forward to renewing my friendships with my friends and teachers.

I will rebuild my confidence as a learner in school and work very hard.

Lord Jesus,
When you walked with us on earth,
you spread your healing power.
We place in your loving care
all who are affected by the pandemic.
Keep us strong in faith, hope and love.
Bring relief to our sick,
console our bereaved,
Help them to start rebuilding,
with the support of those around them.
We lift our prayer to you Lord,
and trust in your infinite mercy,
as we wait for the daybreak.
Amen.
