Fourth Sunday of Lent – 14th March 2021

John 3:14-21

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

"Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

Good Deeds
Light up the World

After listening to the gospel I thought about Jesus being the light of the world and all the good deeds bringing light during what has been a very dark time.

This week I have thanked God for all those people who have given up their time for others, e.g. NHS volunteers.

I will make an effort to do good deeds at home and at school this week.

Loving God,

We pray for our school family as we come back together during this season of Lent.

Help us to learn from Your selflessness in giving your son Jesus, the light of the world.

Give strength to the inspirational individuals whose good deeds have provided light during what has been a dark time.

Let us be generous in our thoughts, words and actions.

Amen.
